

Green Liberty Notes

Providing small investors opportunities to support and benefit from clean energy economy

Investments help small businesses become more energy efficient

Upgraded lighting for a local elementary school

Energy efficient refrigeration for a neighborhood grocery store

Efficient cooling system for a resilience hub to serve community in extreme heat

Sensor ventilation system for a science museum

Modern heating for a family-owned car wash

Crowdfunding to benefit our community and the climate

Through an accessible online platform, individuals pool their resources to support green energy in Connecticut.

Small business owners receive zero percent loans to upgrade their energy systems and pay back over time.

Anyone can invest in Connecticut's clean energy

Most Green Liberty Note investments are less than $1,000. The minimum investment of $100 allows everyday people to participate and benefit from the green economy.

Investments made from people across 40+ states

